

01

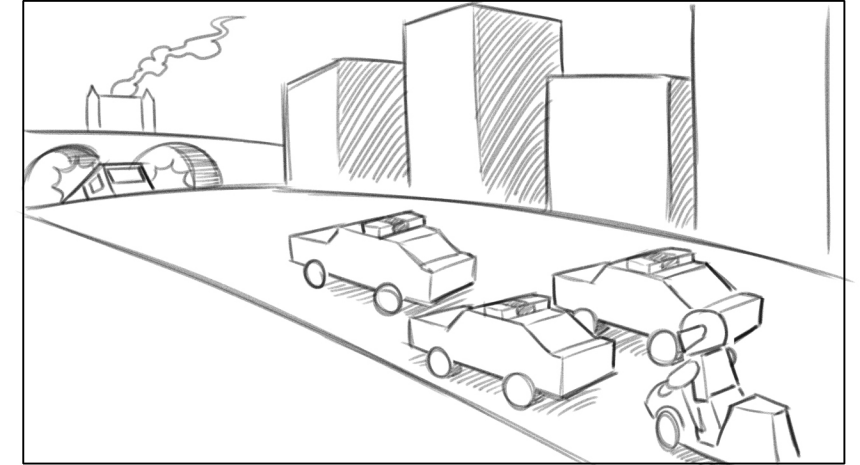

It's moments after the end of Part One. The stolen LADDER TRUCK races down the street, with many other LEGO City FIRE VEHICLES in pursuit.

02

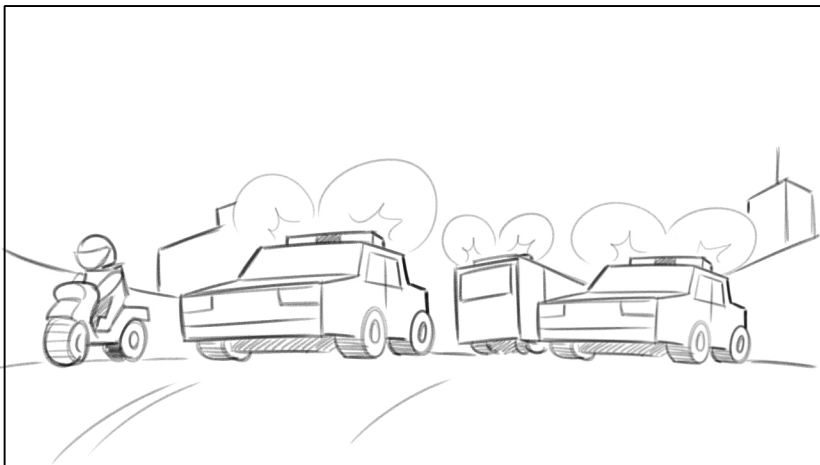

The CROOK drives the stolen truck, the glowing BRIEFCASE on the seat next to her.
“A master thief is on the loose in a stolen LEGO City
Fire Truck!”

03

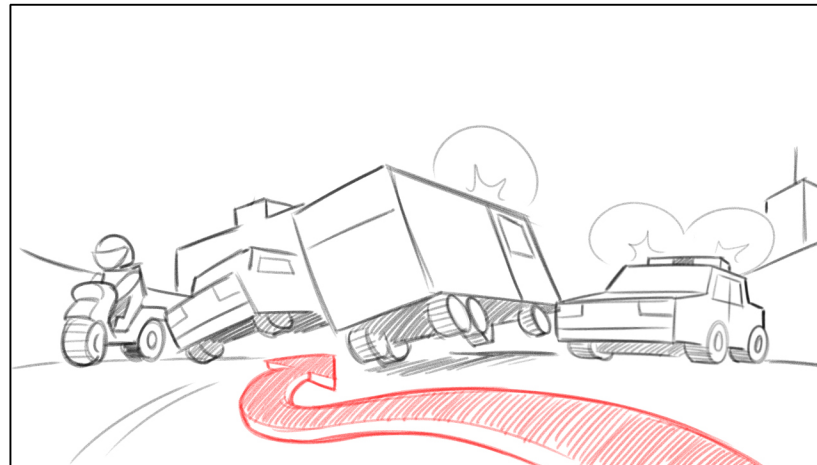

The POLICE CHIEF in his squad car is at the head of many other POLICE VEHICLES racing toward the burning mansion.

04

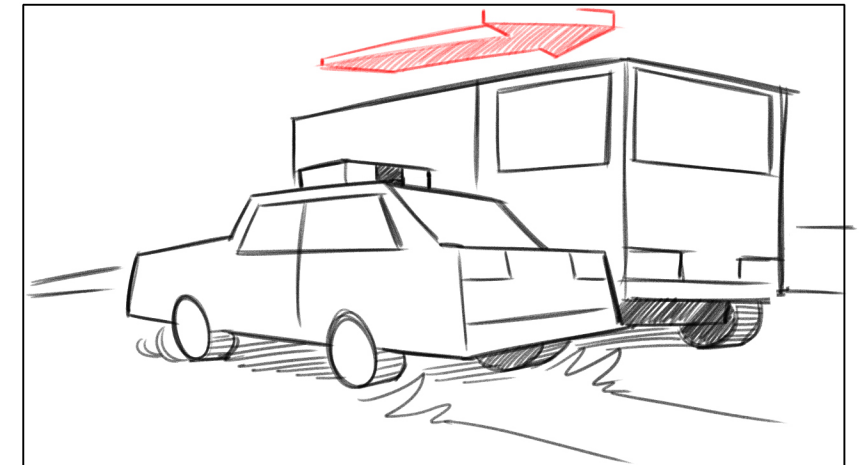

“But that crook will have to tangle with the LEGO City Police!”

05

The stolen Ladder Truck passes the Police Cars going
the other way at high speed.

07

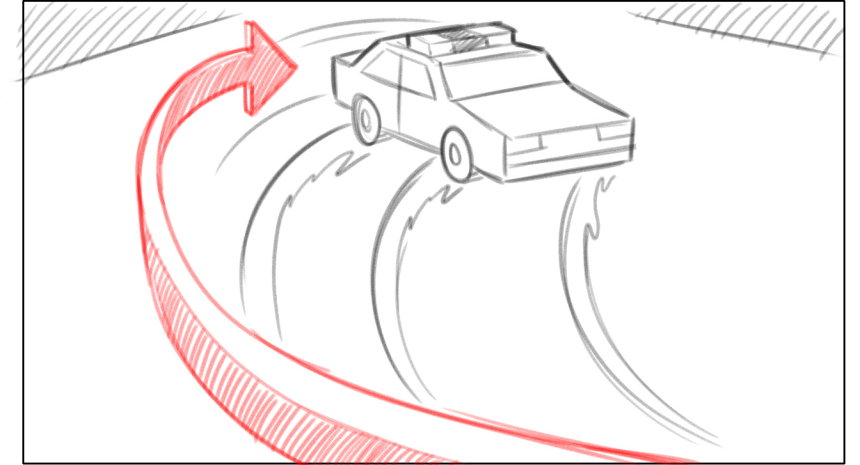

Then all of the other Fire Vehicles pass the Chief, also going the other direction, all in pursuit of the stolen Ladder Truck.

08

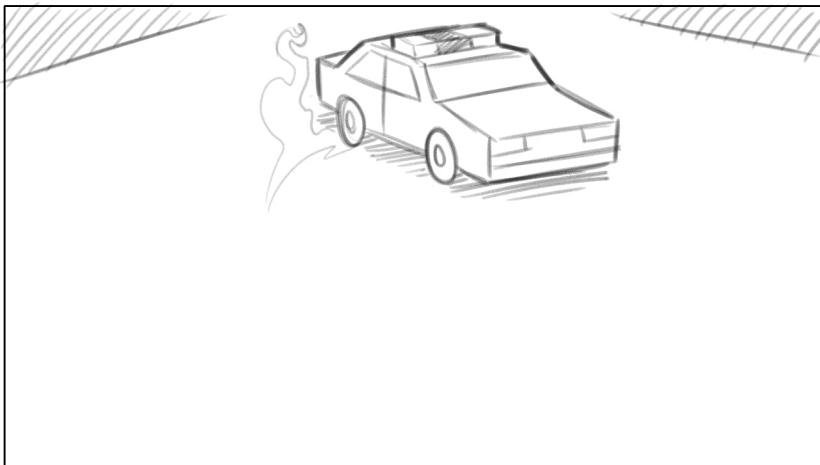

Realizing what's happening, the Chief hits the breaks,

09

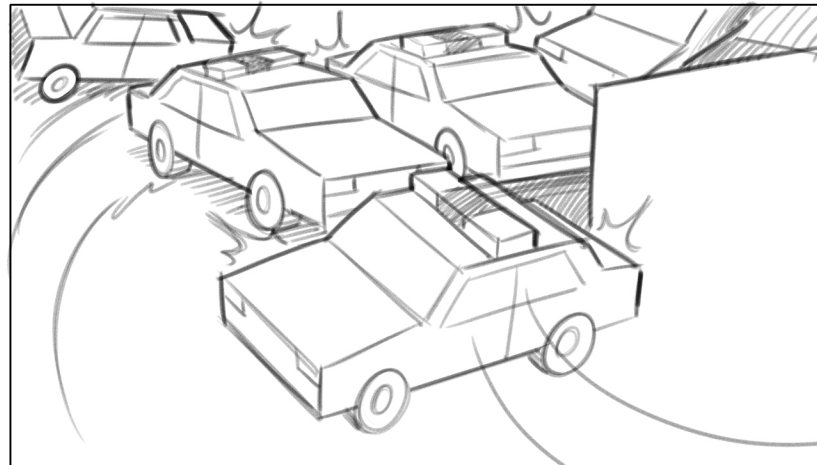

putting his vehicle into a 360 SKID;

10

then all of the other Police Vehicles do the same SKID,

11

but they SLAM into each other, creating an inescapable bottleneck.

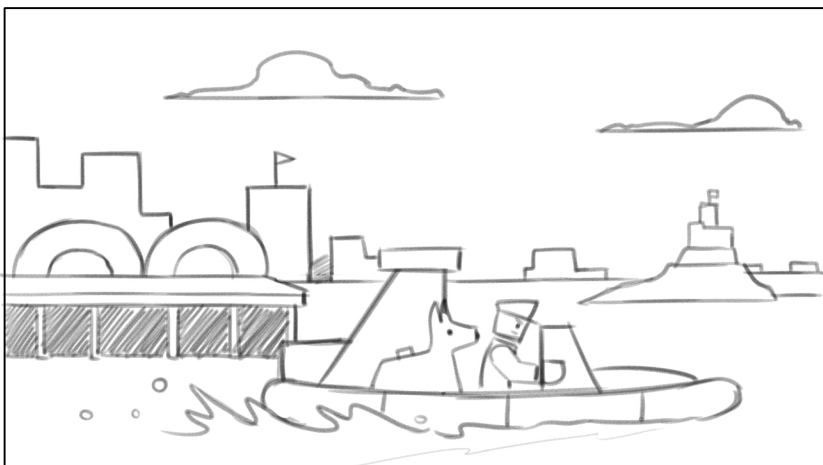

12

13

TYLER GUMSHOE is at the wheel of the LEGO City
POLICE BOAT, zooming across the bay, with PRISON
ISLAND STATION visible in the BG behind him.

14

He is on the phone with the Chief.

“Tyler Gumshoe and his dog Chester!”

15

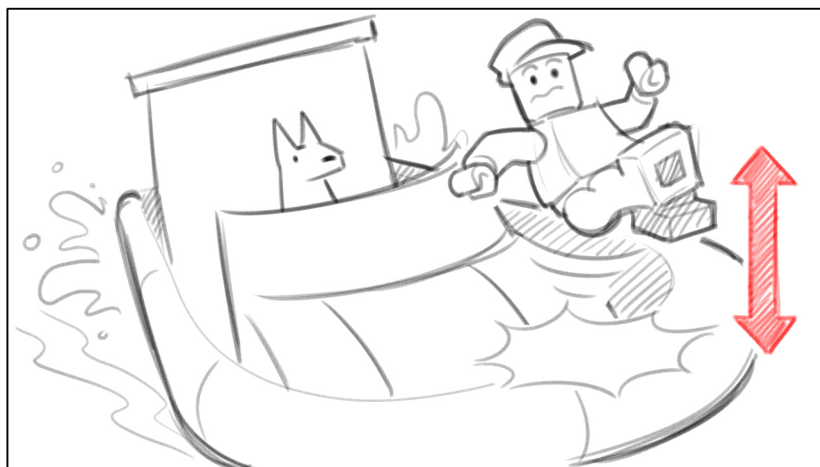

Chester pushes the throttle, putting the boat into high gear.

Tyler heroically stands up in the boat like George Washington, pointing to LEGO City...but the boat starts to bob...

...and Tyler starts to bounce, almost almost falling into the bay. Tyler sheepishly sits back down and the boat rights itself,

18

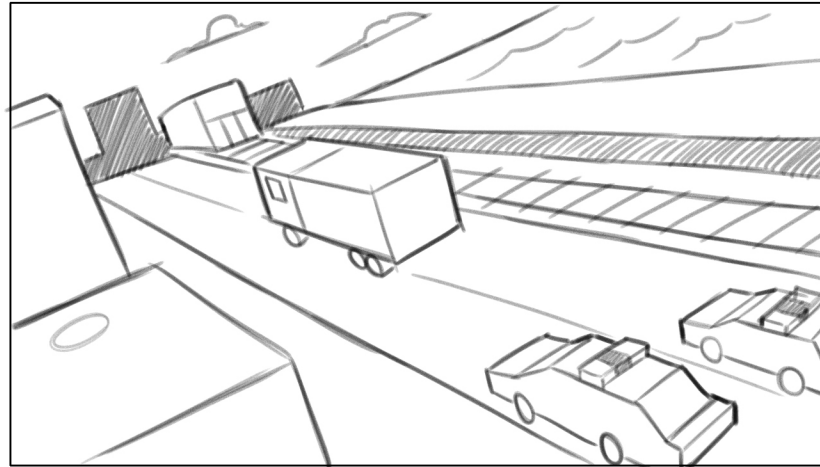

as Chester rolls his eyes at Tyler.

19

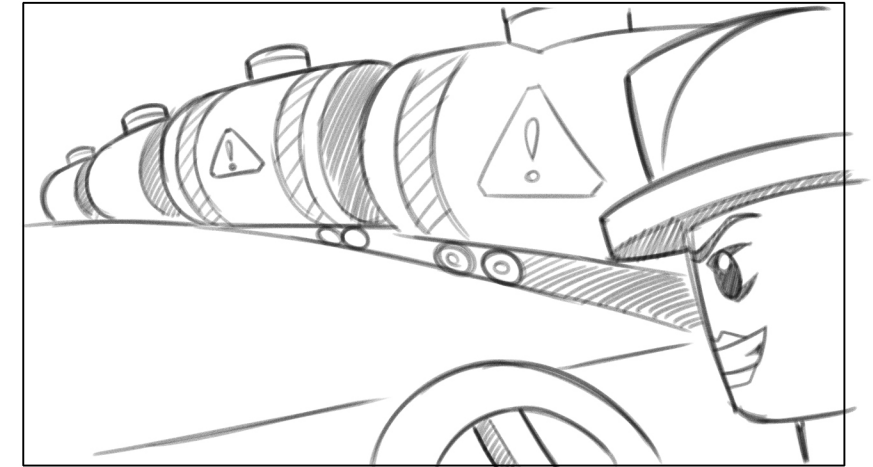

As the boat zooms away again, Tyler and Chester look towards an ominous view of several VOLCANO EXPLORERS HELICOPTERS passing overhead as they head toward a distant RUMBLING VOLCANO.

20

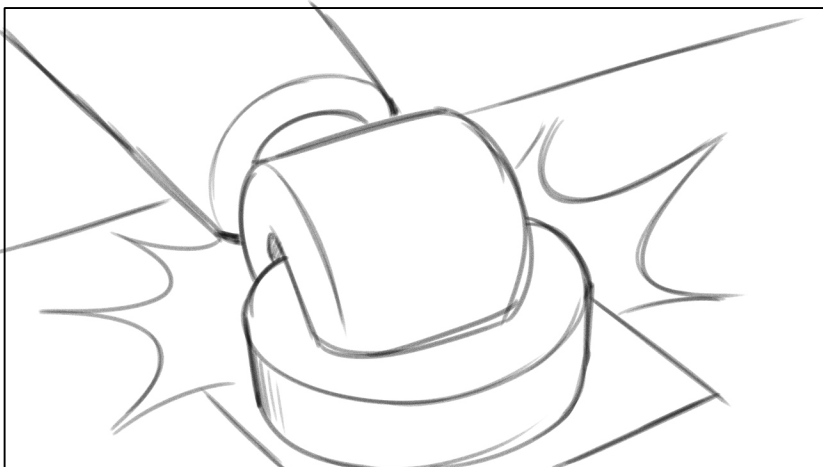

The Crook leads the Fire Trucks and Police Chief on a chase down a waterfront boulevard, with a RAILROAD LINE running along it.

21

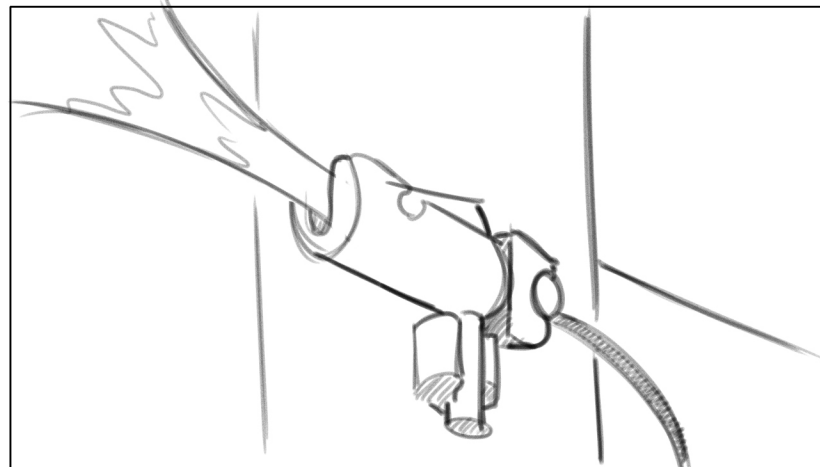

The Crook looks ahead and sees a FREIGHT TRAIN sitting on the tracks. Getting a sneaky idea,

22

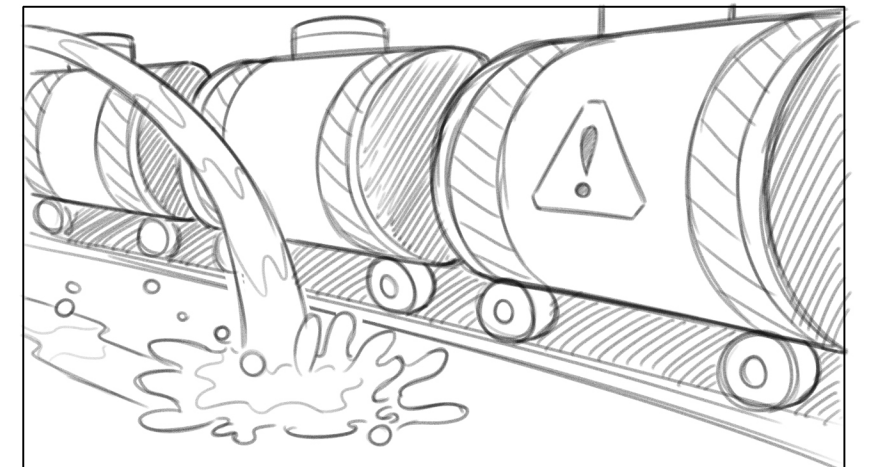

she hits a button and...

23

24

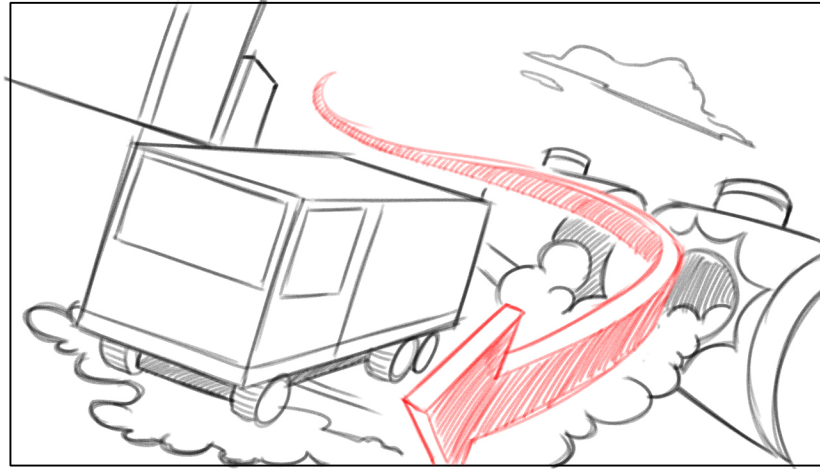

The hose atop the ladder spews water onto the road.

25

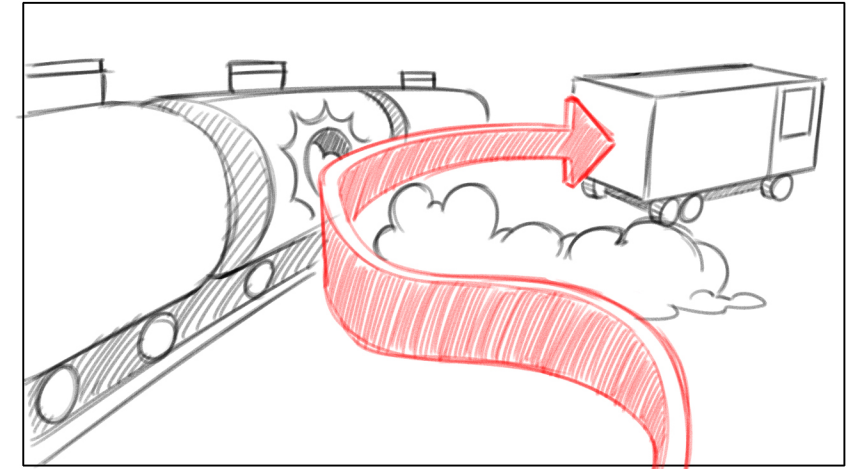

The Crook then jerks the Ladder Truck's steering wheel, causing the Ladder Truck's rear to swing over and SLAM into the side of a REFRIGERATOR TANKER CAR on the freight train.

26

27

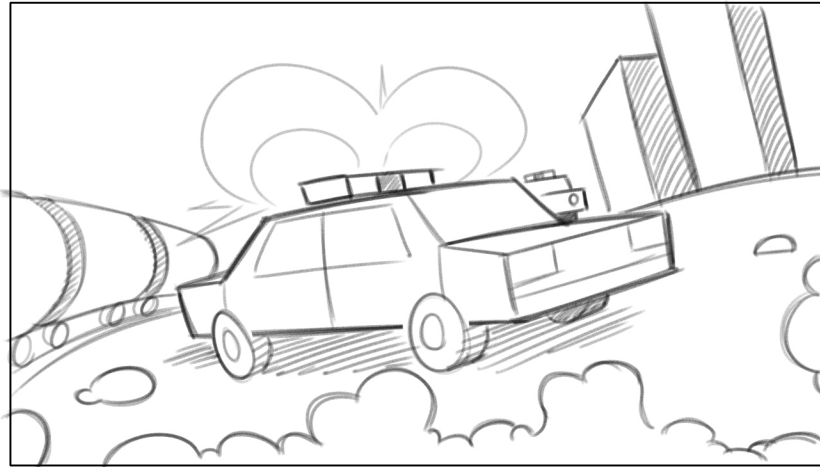

A hole opens in the side of the Refrigerator Tanker Car and ice cold LIQUID NITROGEN GAS shoots out onto the road, causing the road to FREEZE OVER into a slippery sheet of ice!

28

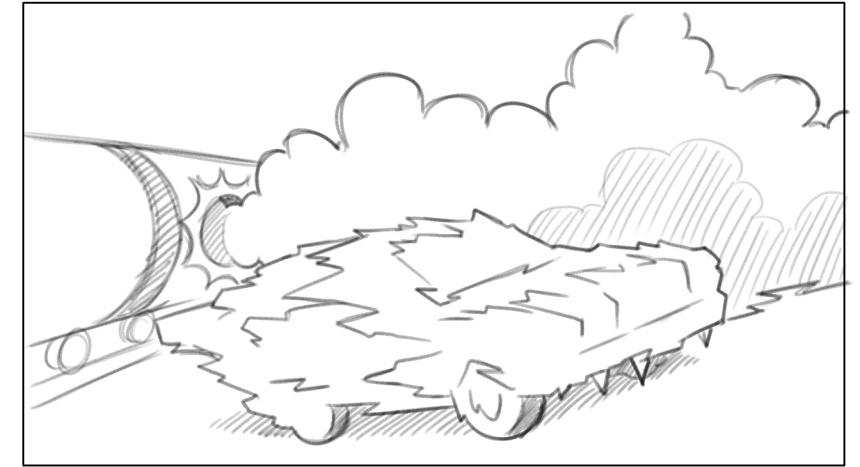

The Police Chief's car SKIDS on the ice,

29

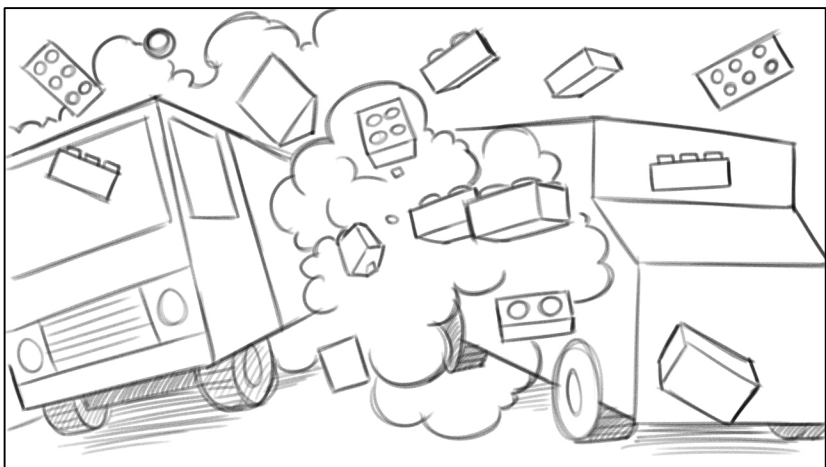

and through the cloud of Liquid Nitrogen,

30

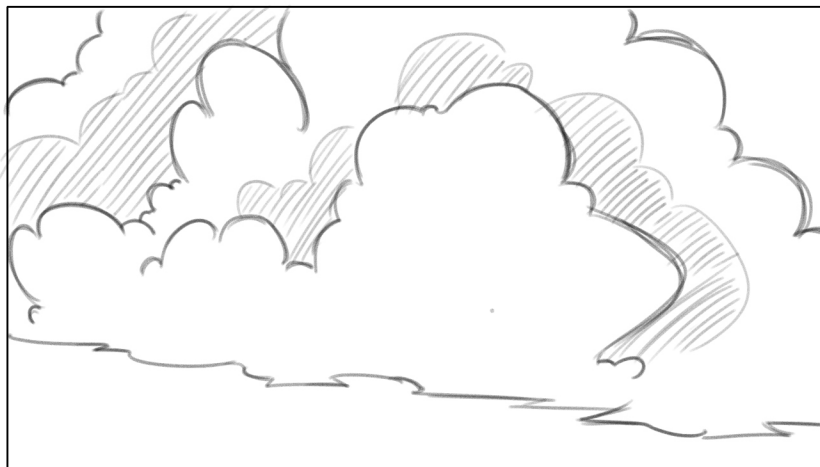

emerging from the cloud completely FROZEN.

31

A beat and the remaining Fire Trucks SKID into the frozen police car, causing it to EXPLODE into bricks (like the T-1000 at end of “Terminator 2”).

32

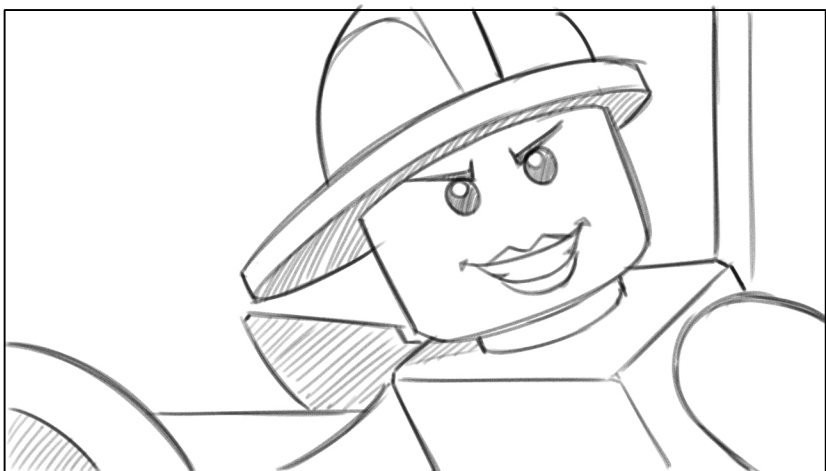

When the dust clears,

33

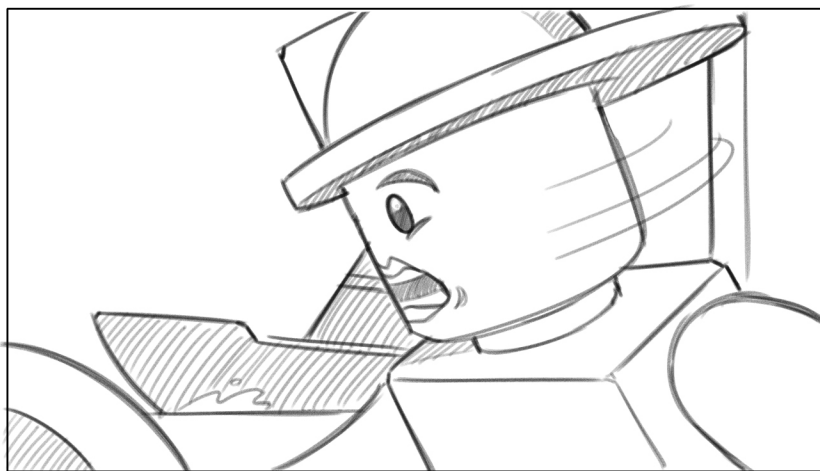

we see the Police Chief sitting on the road, unharmed.

34

The Crook smiles. It looks like she got away with it.

35

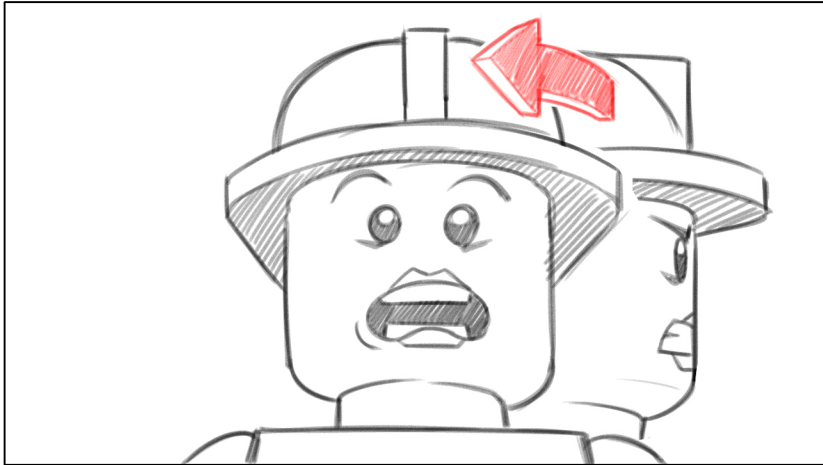

But then she looks outside and sees...

36

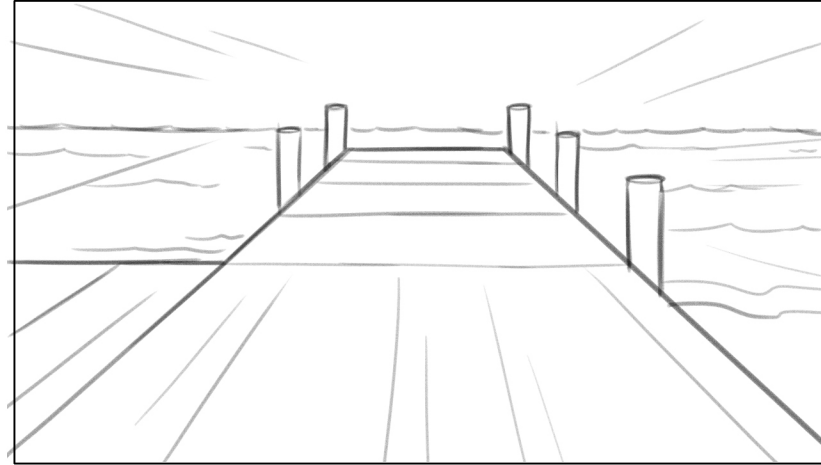

Tyler and Chester zoom up in the Police Boat and race alongside the Waterfront Boulevard, keeping pace with the Crook and her stolen Ladder Truck.

37

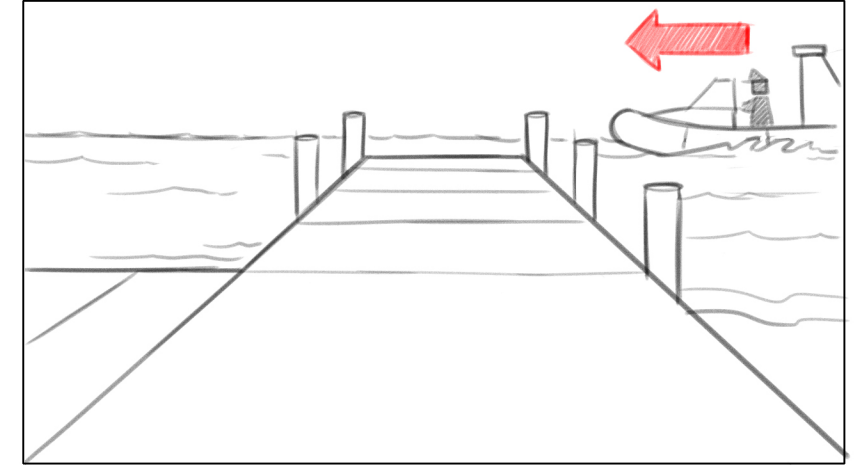

The Crook sees that the street she's driving on,

38

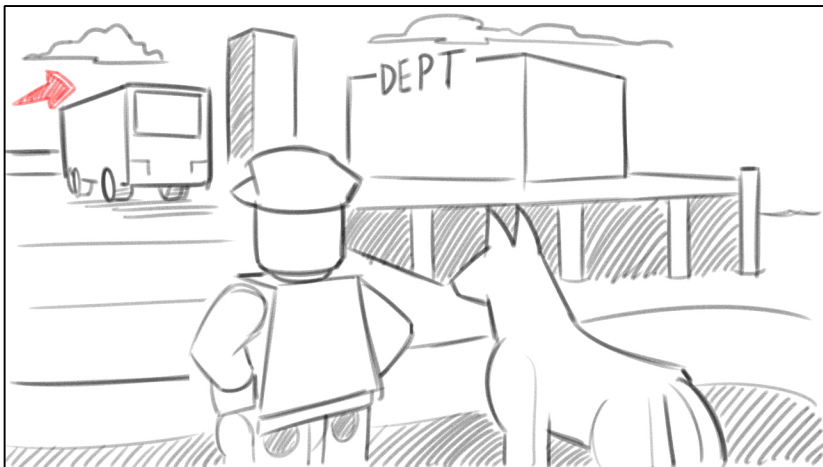

dead-ends at the docks,

39

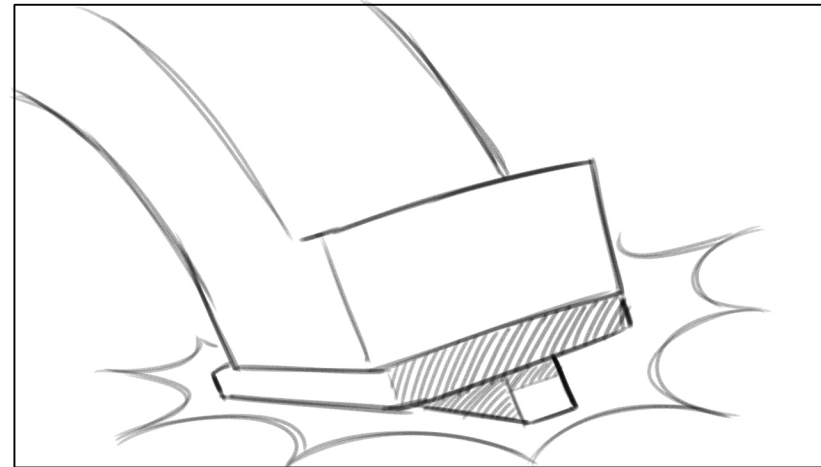

and that Tyler and Chester are racing up to the dock

40

both Tyler and Chester hold up their Police Shields.

41

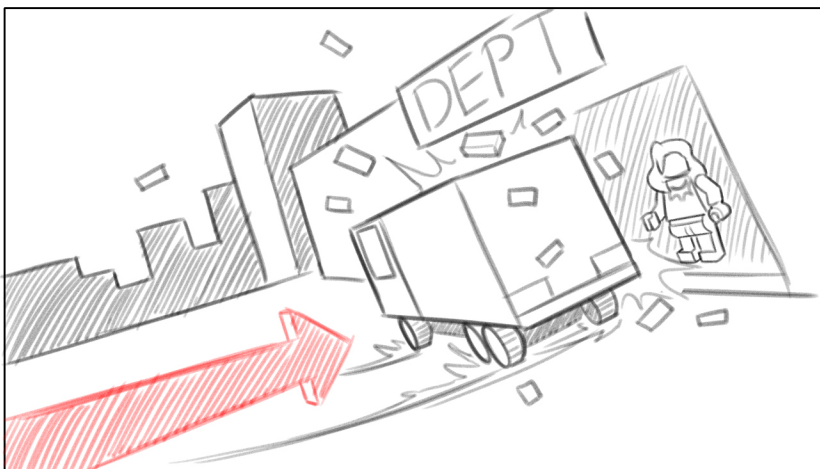

The Crook steps on the brakes,

42

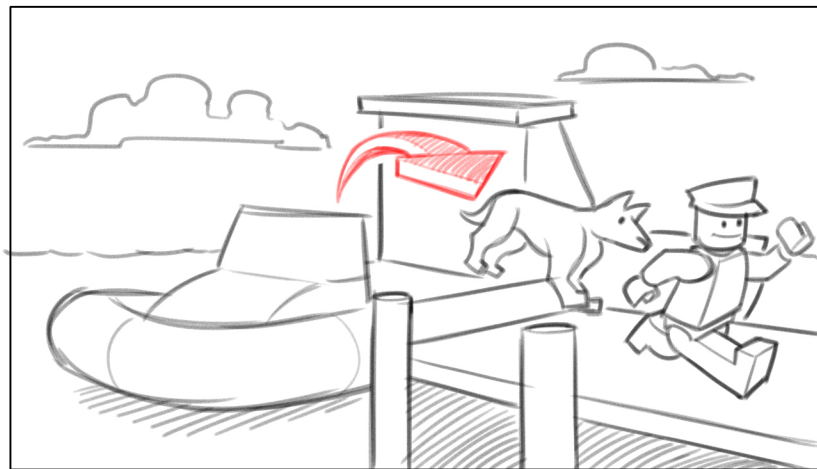

and throws the Ladder Truck into a wild SCREECHING SKID,

43

that sends the truck CRASHING through the window of a DEPARTMENT STORE.

44

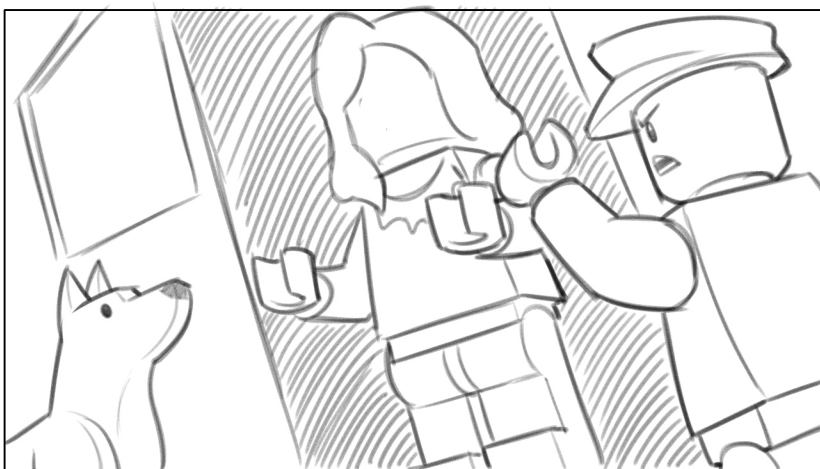

Tyler and Chester race off the boat,

45

and run up to the crashed Ladder Truck. They see what appears to be the Crook sitting at the wheel of the Truck. He throws the door open, ready to make the arrest.

46

When Tyler opens the door, a department store MAN-NEQUIN falls out. The Crook -- and the glowing briefcase -- are gone!

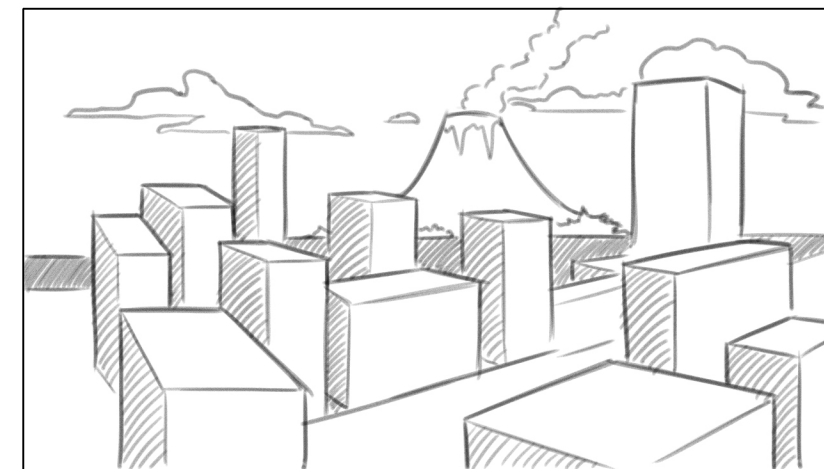

“Yes! Tyler Gumshoe always get his...(SHOCKED)
dummy?!”

47

As Tyler and Chester share a confounded look,

48

we PULL OUT to a WIDE OVERHEAD SHOT of LEGO City.
